In Memoriam

Beloved teacher and guide . . . young in heart and wise beyond his years

. . . loved and was loved . . . a friend to all

MACKIE HUBON REEP

Dedication

The dedication of our yearbook is a most difficult job, for our school is blessed with the finest teachers, principals, and leaders anywhere. But this year we feel that we have chosen someone special who signifies the ideal teacher.

This person has been teaching at Hildebran High School for four years and has devoted a great deal of her time to helping students obtain the best possible education. Aside from being a patient and understanding teacher, this person is always willing to help us in any way she can with our problems, no matter how large or how small they may be.

We believe that we could have made no finer choice, for all of us have a tender place deep in our hearts for this teacher, who is a fine lady in every respect. So it is with the most sincere joy and pride that we dedicate THE TOWER TO . . . . . .

ATHLETICS '63

The band plays.

Why are the baskets so high?

The fans wait.

Another successful triumph is just beginning.

The lines charge

The Royals score again.

It's timeout and the cheerleaders take over.

Our girls try softball for a change.

SENIORS IN ACTION

. . . Can just barely make it!

Watch that first Step.

Mills and Willis . . . Studying???

Where to from here?

She's our Queen.

What did you say?

Head 'em up . . . Move 'em out!

I saw this done on TV once.

We could have danced all Night!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of Nineteen and Sixty-three of Hildebran High School, being of sound mind and about to graduate from this institute of higher learning, do hereby bequeath the following articles to the following beneficiaries:

ARTICLE I

To our teachers and principal we leave our empty desks with hopes that the next group coming along will do a better job.

ARTICLE II

To our parents, we leave our thanks and appreciation for their help and all the backing they gave us.

ARTICLE III

To the Freshmen, we leave our battle scars that we have collected through the past four years of torture.

ARTICLE IV

To the Sophomores, we leave our dignity in hopes that they will attain as high a goal as we had.

To the Juniors, we leave our most prized possessions to the following:

Ella Mae Abernethy leaves her voice to Delaine Duckett in hopes that she will sing even better.

Perry Abernethy leaves his daydreaming in French class to Ricky Hames and David Hoyle.

Sonny Abernethy leaves his hot Pontiac to Barry Whisnant in hopes the cops don't catch him.

Janice Aderholdt leaves her homecoming crown to Janice Abernethy, Ann Yoder, and Sue Raby in hopes that the best "man" wins.

Geveta Annas leaves her slow movements to Judy Evans in hopes that she doesn't go into a tailspin.

Rita Bailey leaves to Judy Heavner and Sherry Decker her ability to prevent heartbreak.

Kay Baker leaves her lovely voice to Alice Taylor in hopes that she doesn't break too many windows with it.

Priscilla Baker leaves her red hair to Janet Smart in hopes that it doesn't affect her temper.

Johnny Barlow leaves his ability to avoid girls to Eddie Norris, Larry Orders, and Jimmy Pittman in hopes that they will have as good a luck.

Barbara Bolick leaves her expert typing ability to Sharon Eckard and Janice Buff hoping that they will also reach 10 words per minute.

Joan Bollinger leaves her books and good grades to Dwight Teems and Mary Spencer.

Mills Bridges leaves his end position on the football team to Bobby Burkett in hopes that he will succeed there.

Florence Brown leaves her bus to Dexter Lail hoping he can guide it.

Judy Brown wills her ability to always being seen on Saturday night to Donna Hutto and Gloria Starnes hoping they have just as good a time as she has had.

Roger Buff leaves his ability to attract Sophomores to Roddy Young.

Willis Burkett leaves his two front teeth to Nolan Wilson so he can keep up that cute smile.

Kathy Burns leaves her real gone ways to Dennis Johnson and Sue Lowman hoping that they don't get into trouble.

Linda Canipe wills her idle moments to Addie Belle Clark, Ellen Teague, and Alma Lowman.

Brenda Childers wills her band uniform to Shari Parker hoping it fits.

Karen Childers wills her quiet ways to James Abernethy and Wilma Turnmire.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Dan Cline leaves his bus to David Wortman, Dexter Lail, and Lanny Burns in hopes that they don't wreck it.

Evelyn Coffey leaves her blond hair to Sylvia Hannah so it will make her a movie star.

Jimmy Crooks leaves his weekly trip to Bunker Hill to Glenn Allison.

David Dowell leaves his respect for all teachers to Gerald Hahn and Dennis Hames.

Janie Ellis leaves her neatness to Judy Stephens.

Barbara Fowler leaves her quietness to Jerry Hamilton hoping it helps him.

Paul Fowler leaves a plug of "Apple" tobacco and his ball bat to Jimmy Stephens.

Wanda Frye leaves to Janice Rowe her ability to get married in hopes that she will succeed in life.

Rita Fullbright leaves her freckles to Ann Young.

Rebecca Gragg leaves her pretty black hair to Elaine Miller.

Sandra Haire leaves her big beautiful green eyes and her French ditties to Vickie Allen.

Mary Hall leaves her curly red hair to Terry Smith in hopes that it will aid him in his motif of yellow socks and yellow shirt.

Oneida Hart leaves her ability of not ever winning an argument to Linda Childres.

Larry Hildebran leaves to Nathan Childers long sweeping hair hoping he keeps it combed.

Louise Houston leaves her first period typing position to Patsy Canipe.

Bobby Hutchinson leaves his Huckelberry Hound Sweat Shirt and his dirty sneakers to Perry Seagle in hopes that he will burn them.

Paul Johnson bequeaths his friendly ways to Scott Good.

Tommy Keller leaves his jokes to Michael Benefield hoping everybody laughs.

Jimmy Kuykendall leaves his ability to be excused from third period study hall to David Turner and Sally Willix.

Ronald Lail leaves his reputation of being a very nice boy to Albert Young and Howard Lowman.

Toni Lail leaves her Senior class president's rostrum to Julious Abernethy.

Roland Lockee leaves his good humor to Jerry Brannock.

Judy Mackey leaves her good will to Rita Smith so she won't ever get into a spot when she can't think of anything to say.

Billie Kaye Mask leaves her '59 Ford to Linda Whisnant hoping she makes it to school.

Barbara Mays leaves to Barbara Burns her ability to figure out her French.

David Oehling leaves his sayings to Gary Wilkinson in hopes he can keep the ball rolling.

Nolan Page leaves Claywell Icard and Larry Williams his ability to stick to school, no matter what.

Tommy Parham leaves to Wayne Poovey his ability to play football even though it wouldn't help him.

David Phillips leaves to Curtis Eckard his little Volks Wagon.

Sara Poteat leaves her position beside Locker No. 47 to Larry Rhoney.

Jesse Raby leaves his first string tackle position to Mark Reed hoping he can fill his shoes.

Judy Rhoney wills her fondness for living near a beach (even if it is Rhodhiss) to Linda Cannon.

Diane Rudisill leaves her position in front of the mirror to David Simpson.

Wanda Rudisill leaves her ability to concentrate to Rosemary Williams.

Dennis Seagle leaves all of his study notes to Kay McCray in hopes they will benefit her.

Jim Setzer leaves to Sue Cole a wooden wedding ring he made in Agriculture.

Judi Shumate leaves her place in cheerleader to Maxine Taylor.

Richard Stephens leaves his ability to supposedly always be right to Ronnie Collins in hopes he will also be right.

Gerald Smart leaves his place in Physical Ed. to Tex Burns in hopes he can do more "push-ups."

Ronnie Taylor leaves to Jack Lail his bus hoping he can keep everyone quieter.

Kenny Wade leaves his place on the track team to Larry Burns.

Iva Warlick doesn't know of anything to leave behind, but if Lynn Clontz finds it, she can have it.

Linda White leaves her personality and good humor to Judy Hawkins so she can keep things going.

Jan Wilson leaves to Charles Thornburg her perfect French vocabulary to help him.

Frances Yoder leaves her ability of having two study halls to Joyce Hudson.

Harold Yoder leaves his ability of always being late for school to Ronald Decker.

Paul Yoder leaves to Larry Martin his camera in hopes his pictures will be better.

Electricity Does So Much Cost So Little

The cost of most items you use today has more than doubled since 1940. But during the same period the unit cost of electricity has decreased 38% while your residential usage has increased five times, indicating a higher standard of living. Electricity is the biggest bargain in your family's budget.
